1) Teens in Action

Many young people 2) are making the world a better place.

For example, Carter and Olivia Ries 3) have become leaders in saving animals.

4) Although they are only teenagers, they have 5) actually made a difference in the world.

How were they able to do that?

Let's hear from Carter.

When I was five, my little sister Olivia and I 6) each adopted a cheetah.

7) Did we raise cheetahs at home?

No, we 8) donated to a charity that protects wild cheetahs in South Africa.

Our parents told us that 9) if we did not protect them, we 10) might not be able to see cheetahs in the near future.

We soon 11) became interested in helping other endangered animals.

A few years later, 12) with help from our parents, we created 13) a non-profit organization to protect them.

We wanted 14) the next generation to be able to see these animals, so we 15) named our organization One More Generation.

We also 16) studied endangered animals and educated our friends about them.

Then one day, 17) a terrible oil spill occurred in the Gulf of Mexico.

A lot of sea animals 18) were completely covered with oil, and they were dying.

We 19) had to do something.

We started 20) collecting animal rescue supplies such as pet carrying cages and rubber gloves from everyone in our neighborhood.

Four months later, our family drove to the Gulf of Mexico 21) to deliver what we collected and helped to save the animals.

22) While we were working there, we learned 23) something very useful.

When we put mayonnaise into a turtle's throat, 24) the turtle threw up.

That way, we 25) were able to get oil out of turtles.

I never knew mayonnaise 26) could be used to save animals!

On our last day, we met a marine life specialist.

She told us that 27) plastic waste is more dangerous to sea animals than oil spills are.

A lot of sea animals and sea birds die 28) from eating plastic waste.

After we came home, we created 29) an educational project about 30) how to reduce plastic waste.

In addition to this, our organization 31) continues to do various projects to save animals.

32) Although we started small, we are making a big difference.

33) What you do today can change the world, so take that first step!

Important Norse Gods

- Odin, 34) who is the highest god, gave up 35) his eye for wisdom.
- Thor is Odin's son and 36) the strongest god of all.
- Frey, 37) who is the god of the harvest, controls 38) the weather.
- Loki is 39) a god who plays tricks on others.

Thor 40) woke and knew immediately something was 41) wrong. His wife's beautiful golden hair 42) was gone. He knew 43) only Loki could do such a terrible thing. Thor soon found Loki, 44) who was drinking at home. "45) You'd better undo what you did, 46) or you'll be sorry," Thor 47) said angrily to Loki.

Loki 48) was scared. He promised that 49) he would get golden hair for Thor's wife.

Loki knew only the sons of Ivaldi 50) could make fine golden hair. He went to them and said, "I heard Brokk and his brother are 51) the finest smiths. Is that true?"

"No, 52) it is we who are the finest smiths," the sons of Ivaldi replied.

"They're making 53) three treasures for Odin, Thor, and Frey," said Loki. "Do you think 54) you can make treasures better than theirs?"

"Of course we can," they answered.

"O.K., then you should also make 55) three treasures for them," said Loki. "The gods will 56) decide on the best treasure."

Loki also told them that 57) one of the treasures had to be golden hair. They went to work immediately. Loki then went to see Brokk and his brother. "58) Ivaldi's sons are making three treasures for Odin, Thor, and Frey," said Loki. "59) I bet that you can never make treasures as fine as theirs."

Brokk became angry and 60) accepted the challenge.

He and his brother produced 61) three treasures of their own.

Loki went 62) to see the three gods with all the treasures. Brokk came along. Loki 63) showed them the treasures from Ivaldi's sons. The first treasure was for Odin, 64) who had only one eye. 65) It was a spear that never missed its target. The second treasure was 66) a big ship that could turn into a piece of cloth. It was for Frey. The third treasure was for Thor. Loki showed Thor 67) the flowing golden hair for his wife. Thor 68) put the hair on his wife's head, and it took root and 69) became real hair.

It was now Brokk's 70) turn to show the gods his gifts. He gave Odin a gold arm ring 71) that produced eight more gold rings every ninth night. Brokk then gave Frey a pig. It could 72) pull his carriage faster than any horse.

"My third treasure is for you, Thor," said Brokk. "This is the hammer Mjolnir, 73) which you'll love. If you throw it, 74) it'll always come back to you. 75) Moreover, nothing can 76) ever break it."

It was 77) an easy decision to choose the greatest treasure. 78) It was Mjolnir that the three gods liked most. They thought the hammer 79) would protect the gods from their enemies.

"Brokk and his brother," said Odin, "are 80) the better smiths."

Brokk proved that 81) Loki was wrong, and the three gods now had 82) precious treasures.
